FRANKLIN PRODUCTS

A Division of OMG National

Saving Lives through Prevention

For over 50 years, Franklin Products has been dedicated to providing community awareness products and materials to municipalities nationwide. From our start in 1967, we have taken great pride in offering safety, community awareness, and promotional products for communities all around the country.

Our coloring books, bookmarks, stickers, and brochures have helped millions of people in communities throughout the United States to learn about Fire Safety & Prevention. As a family business now in its 3rd generation, Franklin Products became a part of the OMG National Family in 2015 with goals to grow, develop new products, update our classics, and stay ahead of the curve.

As always, from order to delivery, a caring and experienced team member is here to help you with your order. Providing our valued customers with community outreach materials to help prevent and save lives is more than a job— it's our mission to help fire departments make the most out of their community awareness budget.

We thank you for choosing us to provide the products that help educate your community.

We promise to never let you down: that's our guarantee.

5-STAR FEEDBACK

"The folks at Franklin Products have been great to work with for our fire department signage. They made the process of designing our products seamless and easy. The final, delivered products were of great quality and worked for everything from festivals to career fairs!"

- Sarah Rice
Bolivar Fire Department

"Franklin Products always goes above and beyond with their products, and we've always appreciated the quality and detail they have put into the Junior Firefighter badges that we have purchased over the years. Our department continues to go back to them time and again, not only because of the quality, but also because of their pricing and quick shipping. The Myrtle Beach Fire Department will definitely be supporting this company for years to come!"

- Captain Jonathan Evans
Community Risk Reduction Officer for the City of Myrtle Beach Fire Department

"We have been using Franklin Products for our public education products for over 10 years. Franklin Product has continuously provided quality products and always within the timeframe promised. The quality of their products is top notch and we will continue to work with Franklin Products in the future."

- Chief John Horan
North Providence Fire Department
